

MARINE CORPS ADMINISTRATIVE ANALYSIS TEAM MISSION

Our Mission:

We are the M&RA Department spokesman for the personnel administrative and finance field. As such, we will ensure the well-being of Marines by providing to commanders and their staffs, education and instruction in Marine Corps policies and procedures which effective administration, pay, and allowances. We also identify and assist in resolving problem areas in personnel administration and pay-related management procedures, and recommend such action as may be necessary for developing, revising and implementing future changes to the administrative and finance fields. Our emphasis will be equally distributed between education and analysis requirements.

Objectives:

Our objectives are to provide commanders, their staffs, and higher headquarters with education and instruction on Marine Corps policies and procedures which effect administration, pay and allowances to promote accuracy and efficiency in pay-related administrative and financial functions, and to provide recommended actions, as necessary, for improvements in the administrative and financial functions inherent to Marine Corps organizations.
